PSALM 41

BLESSED is he that considers the poor: YAHWAH will deliver him in time of trouble.

YAHWAH will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the land: and you will not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

YAHWAH will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: you will make all his bed in his sickness.

I said, YAHWAH, be merciful unto me: heal my person; for I have sinned against you.

My enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

And if he come to see me, he speaks vanity: his heart gathers iniquity to itself; when he goes abroad, he tells it.

All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

An evil disease, say they, cleaves fast unto him: and now that he lies he shall rise up no more.

Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, has lifted up his heel upon me.

But you, O YAHWAH, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

By this I know that you favour me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.

And as for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me before your face forever.

Blessed be YAHWAH ELOHEEM of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

This concludes Psalm 41.
