PSALM 63

O ELOHEEM, you are my God; early will I seek you: my person thirsts for you, my flesh longs for you in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

To see your power and your glory, so as I have seen you in the sanctuary.

Because your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise you.

Thus will I bless you while I live: I will lift up my hands in your name.

My person shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips:

When I remember you upon my bed, and meditate on you in the night watches.

Because you have been my help, therefore in the shadow of your wings will I rejoice.

My person follows hard after you: your right hand upholds me.

But those that seek my person, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the land.

They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

But the king shall rejoice in the ELOHEEM; every one that swears by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

This concludes Psalm 63.
