

THE PRAYER ILLUSION

(Watch the Video - Listen to the Audio)

Like all teachings in Christianity, their doctrine about prayer is an illusion, and it has no foundation in the Bible. From Catholics to Evangelicals the perverted prayer concept is always the same. Their fundamental tenant is “Ask God to give you whatever you want, and He will give it to you.” The radio and TV preachers go even a step further and say, “Send us your prayer REQUEST and we’ll put you on our prayer list. We have PRAYER WARRIORS and they will pray for you.” Of course they remind you to send a donation along with your request so that they can keep the ministry going out to a lost world. It sounds to me like they do not believe in prayer but put their trust in begging for money from the very people that they claim they want to help. All they want is to help themselves to your pocket book. Can you imagine Jesus begging anyone for donations in order to keep His ministry going? Nothing that He ever did for anyone had a begging rider attached to it.

The whole concept of prayer preached from the pulpits of Christianity is aimed at keeping all of the parishioners in submission to these perverters of Biblical truth. In their puffed up EGO they say, “I’ll pray for you” as if this will get the job done. They will never tell you what the Bible says about PRAYER, simply because they don’t know what the Bible says about anything they promote to be “Christian”, but are the adherents of the dogma taught in the citadels of their corrupted religious orthodoxy. To them prayer is a means to their own end, it is another way to keep you in subjection to them, and this is why they want to be your intercessor. But what is the truth about prayer? What can be learned from the scriptures? The most curtail point, and the most overlooked, is to whom do you pray? Ask anyone to whom they pray, and they will say to God. Now ask them what is the name of their God and they look confused. It is as if you did not understand what they just said. They pray to God, but God is a generic term that can refer to Alia, Buddha, and a wealth of other religious deities. Misdirected prayer has no chance of being granted.

In Matthew 6:5-13 Jesus teaches about prayer, and contained in these verses is what has become known as “The Lord’s Prayer.” This is a misnomer since it is not His prayer, but is to be His followers’ prayer as stated “when thou prayest” and “after this manner therefore pray ye”. Jesus says that we are to pray to “Our Father”, and yes, you had better know the name of “Our Father”. These that Jesus was teaching how to pray, knew the NAME of their Father. Notice what He says in John 17:26. “And I have declared unto them Thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith Thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.” Needless to say if you don’t know your father’s name, then you don’t know who he is and who you are. It is also in John 17:1 that we learn the proper way to pray. “These words spake Jesus, and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said, Father...” Christianity teaches people to bow their heads and close their eyes when they pray. This cowed down, hanged dog, slavish, blinded posture is not what the Father wants from his children any more than did the father, in the parable of the prodigal son, expect from his returning wayward child. Even the confession of wrong doing is to be eye to eye, face to face, just as stated in 2nd Chronicles 7:14. “If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.” We, as His people, called by His name, must no longer be arrogant in disobedience, but must return home in all humility professing that He is Supreme, all the while looking Him in the FACE. This is how to PRAY, and this brings our forgiveness and the healing of our land.

The church-kike clergy has so deluded, distorted and perverted Christianity that it no longer bears any resemblance to the word of God, but has become the very antithesis of its name. Keeping the people in bondage to their heresy and superstition they have made them the servants of their antichrist religion. There is no power in the “whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.” (Matthew 23:27-28) It is not from these synagogues of Satan called “Christian Churches” that the knowledge of real Bible base prayer will come, and only this brings power. Not only are these Christianites ignorant of the name of God and the posture of prayer, but also they continually ask for everything under the sun. The indictment is given in James 4:3. “Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.” Are not these the kinds of prayers offered up today? One hundred percent of everything prayed for is dictated by flesh driven desires. People are praying to be saved from the cancer consuming their bodies. They pray that they will not lose their job, or that they can find a job, or that they will make more money, or that they will have health insurance, or a host of other wants. To these Christianites, God is a genie who is to grant all their wishes. He is their servant and if He does not perform to their expectations then to Hell with Him.

Everything about prayer taught by Christianity is an illusion, a deception, a perversion, and contrary to God’s word. The apostle Paul in Romans 8:26 says, “Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.” Prayer is a function of the Spirit helping us in our weakness and ignorance, and it is this Spirit that is doing the labor which is so intense that it cannot even be described with words. How then are we to learn about prayer? Light, truth, and power comes from Jesus’ teaching on prayer. Read what He gives us in Matthew 6:9 -13. “After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.” Think about each element of this prayer. To whom do you pray and what is His name for it is to be “hallowed”? For what are you to pray? What is the first and foremost item after the hallowing of the Father’s name? How often are you to pray? How much is provided at any one time? Who leads and delivers, and to what end is all this done?

Here is something else to contemplate, if God knows everything, then He surely knows what you need, so then why pray daily? It is not for God’s benefit, He does not have to be reminded of anything, but prayer is to remind you about who you are and who He is. Prayer is PRAISE of the Father for His sufficiency no matter what is set before us, and this prayer is not an illusion, but is power. It is the force of the spirit that brings us into the fulness of adult sonship which conforms us into the image of Christ who is “the firstborn of many brethren.” Prayer is the proclamation of faith and the demonstration of knowledge. Listen to the Spirit power of David, “a man after God’s own heart”, as he prayed in Psalms 25:4-5, “Shew me Thy ways, O LORD (YAHWAH); teach me Thy paths. Lead me in Thy truth, and teach me: for Thou art the God of my salvation; on Thee do I wait all the day.”
